

REALTORS[®] Code of Ethics Training Certificate of Completion

This will certify that _____ on _____ successfully completed comprehensive training on the history, structure, interpretation, and enforcement of the Code of Ethics of the National Association of REALTORS[®] consistent with the learning objectives and criteria established in the REALTORS[®] Code of Ethics Training requirement.

The Code of Ethics was adopted in 1913 to establish a high ethical standard of conduct for REALTORS[®] and REALTOR-ASSOCIATES[®]. It establishes: 1) duties to clients and customers, 2) duties to the public, and 3) duties to other REALTORS[®].

Association President

Association Executive