

ANN MCDONALD
NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®
2017 REGIONAL VICE PRESIDENT

Ann McDonald, a REALTOR® from Winchester, Kentucky, is the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® liaison for Region 4, comprised of Kentucky, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee. She is the broker of four real estate offices located in Lexington, Winchester, Georgetown and Richmond for Coldwell Banker McMahan Co. McDonald received her real estate license in 1975 and her broker license in 1978.

Over the years, McDonald has been involved with many NAR committees such as governmental affairs, finance, strategic plan, legal affairs and RPAC. McDonald served as the state chairman of the RPAC committee in 2016 and in 2015 she served as RPAC Trustee, Vice Chair. McDonald was also inducted into the RPAC Hall of Fame in May 2016.

She has served on the board of directors for the Kentucky Association of REALTORS® and in 2009 was honored as KAR REALTOR® of the Year. In 2012, McDonald served as KAR President.

On the local level, she is a member of the Lexington-Bluegrass Association of REALTORS® (LBAR). McDonald served its president in 2005, was awarded LBAR REALTOR® of the Year in 2007, and has served on the Board of Directors. She is also active with the REALTOR® Community Housing Foundation at LBAR.

For many years, she has attended national REALTOR® meetings, leading LBAR to Washington to meet with senators and representatives to discuss important issues affecting the real estate industry.

McDonald serves her community as a member of the Lexington, Winchester, Georgetown and Richmond Chambers of Commerce. In addition, she has attended past Commerce Lexington trips to other cities and also participates in “fly-ins” to Washington.

The NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, The Voice for Real Estate®, is America’s largest trade association, representing 1.2 million members involved in all aspects of the residential and commercial real estate industries.
