E. POTENTIAL CANDIDATE REVIEW: FINANCIAL AUDIT, LEGAL AUDIT, AND CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CHECK

The CCRC will review all timely-filed applications for Elected Office, and the CAWG will review the financial audit, legal audit, and criminal background check conducted on each Potential Candidate.

1. Financial Audit:

An outside auditor will conduct a financial audit of each Potential Candidate to ensure the Potential Candidate's ability to accept the financial burdens of holding an Elected Office, and to determine whether the Potential Candidate meets the required criteria for candidates and elected officers. Potential Candidates running for President-Elect, First Vice President, or Treasurer must complete the NAR Financial Disclosure Statements, and all Potential Candidates are required to submit a tri-merge credit report. The outside financial auditor will review all documents and identify any material issues for the CAWG's review.

2. Legal Audit and Criminal Background Check:

NAR's Office of General Counsel will conduct a legal audit and criminal background check of each Potential Candidate, and will identify any material issues for the CAWG's review. Potential Candidates are required to provide detailed information regarding any prior or pending legal and regulatory matters against the Potential Candidate or any company of which the Potential Candidate is an owner, principal, partner, or corporate officer in any of the following categories:

- i. Pending federal, state and county litigation and/or regulatory action;
- ii. Final judgments; and

3. CAWG Potential Candidate Review:

Examples of issues that may be considered material include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Liens
- Bankruptcies (personal and business)
- Foreclosures
- Three or more accounts with late payments (60 or more days) in the current year

- Judgments (personal or business)

NAR's Office of General Counsel will report to the CAWG any convictions, regulatory investigations, pending litigation, judgments or facts or circumstances that could reasonably represent a source of embarrassment or liability to NAR or conflict with the NAR policies a Potential Candidate would be required to uphold as an Elected Officer.

If after reviewing the financial audit, legal audit, and criminal background check, the CAWG determines there are any material issues that may prevent a Potential Candidate from being deemed an Eligible Candidate, the CAWG will promptly disclose such material issue(s) to the Potential Candidate. The Potential Candidate will then be provided thirty (30) days to correct any inaccurate information or offer any mitigating information relevant to such issue(s). In addition, the CAWG may, in its discretion, request a personal interview with the Potential Candidate.

Any REALTOR® may file a written complaint with the CCRC Chair, and the CCRC may initiate a complaint, for a suspected campaign violation.

If an Interested REALTOR®, Potential Candidate, or Eligible Candidate has a good faith belief that an NAR campaign rule violation has occurred, such individual is encouraged to first attempt to resolve the issue by contacting the allegedly offending candidate, or a representative of that candidate's campaign team. If such attempt is unsuccessful, an Interested REALTOR®, Potential Candidate, or Eligible Candidate may file a written complaint with the CCRC Chair pursuant to the procedure outlined below.

1. Process for Submitting a Complaint:

- a. Written complaints must be filed with the CCRC Chair.
- b. All complaints must contain the name of the complainant, the date the complaint was submitted, and a summary of the allegations. Anonymous complaints will not be accepted.
- c. The CCRC Chair, in consultation with NAR's General Counsel, will review the complaint to determine whether the complaint sufficiently alleges that a campaign violation may have occurred. If it does, then a group consisting of the CCRC Chair or his/her designee, NAR's General Counsel, and one member of the CAWG selected by the CCRC Chair and NAR's General Counsel will contact the respondent directly and attempt to resolve the matter in a mutually agreeable manner, which may include the imposition of a sanction. If the matter is not resolved, the CCRC Chair, or his/her designee, may assemble a five-member panel consisting of members of the CCRC to investigate and consider the matter.
- d. If a panel is assembled, the panel may request the complainant and/or respondent to provide additional information, or appear before the panel in person or remotely.

The panel is not bound by the rules of evidence and may consider any evidence in an attempt to determine whether a campaign violation has occurred. The CCRC Chair, or his/her designee, will serve as chair of the panel.

- e. The resolution of the matter must be agreed upon by a majority vote of the panel.
- f. The CCRC Chair, in consultation with NAR's General Counsel, will document the resolution of the matter and communicate such resolution to respondent. There is no obligation to communicate the panel's decision to the complainant.
- g. If the respondent wishes to appeal the sanction or the panel's decision for any reason, an appeal may be filed with the CCRC Chair. Complainants have no appeal right.

2. Sanctions:

If a campaign violation is deemed to have been committed, the panel has the discretion to impose any one or more of the following sanctions:

- a. Confidential written warning to the candidate, with a copy to the candidate's campaign manager and the candidate's home state association's chief executive officer.
- b. Confidential cease and desist letter to the candidate, with a copy to the candidate's campaign manager and candidate's home state association's chief executive officer.

- g. Prohibition from running for NAR Elected Office during the current and immediately following election cycle.

3. Appeal Process:

- b. Within three (3) business days of receiving the candidate's appeal, the CCRC Chair will notify appellant of the date and time for the hearing.
- c. Appellant has the right to present their appeal to the full CCRC. Members of the CCRC who served as part of the original review panel are excluded from the appeal, except that the CCRC Chair shall preside over the proceeding, but not vote. Appellant will have thirty (30) minutes to present any relevant evidence to the CCRC.
- d. The CCRC will review the complaint anew, affording no deference to the five-member panel's previous decision.
- e. Within five (5) days of the appeal hearing, the CCRC Chair will notify the appellant of the CCRC's decision on the appeal.
- f. The CCRC's decision is final.
