Virtual AEI Year Round

Engaging Virtual Meeting Attendees

Chat Log

August 28, 2020
How to rename yourself:

1. Place your mouse over your image in the top-right corner. You should see a button to invite yourself and then three dots...
2. Click on the (...) menu button.
3. Then choose the option to rename yourself.

Add your name and then other things you think are important such as pronouns. You might also want to add your region.

For example:

Juan Vasquez — Miami, FL

Make sure you have some paper and a pen.

Fold and label your paper.
- How to improve virtual meetings?
- What will our local/national meetings be like in the future?
- Takeaways (things I learned/remembered)
- My questions

Quick Intros:

Who are you, your organization, and a little something about your hometown?

1 minute per person, then switch.

Listen to your partner.

9:00-11:30

Stay present.
- Eat and drink as you wish
- Keep your camera on (unless it should be off.)
- Break around 10:30

To everyone:

Introduce yourself via chat.

Wait to be invited.

Name, your organization, and role. Plus, anything else you want to share, but think about sharing two favorite things — any two things!

I'm Lee Gimpel, the founder of Better Meetings (www.bettermeetings.expert) in Washington, DC. I help make meetings and conferences more dynamic and effective. I never say no to chocolate. I miss my nephews in Montana.

Erica, that's an AWESOME idea!

From: Heather V. to Everyone
that's a great idea, Erica!

From: Cat Scaglione to Everyone
Our New Member Orientation meetings we send out the power point first then make it a competition. I share the Power point then ask questions and at the end the two people who answer the most questions win an amazon gift card. I have a board member tag team with me for the presental. 1/2 hour meeting and they all stay engaged. No EATING on Camera.

From: Erna Curry (Erna) -- Oregon Association of REALTORS® to Everyone
Thanks, Heather and Katie!

From: Katie Shoats -- Anchorage Alaska to Everyone
We talked about more networking with our members and affiliates. We are going to try to do affiliate speed networking, similar to speed dating, using breakout rooms for the date. We need to learn how to use breakout rooms. Also virtual games?

What are your feelings about future meetings? For your own organization locally or for our national gatherings... Virtual, live, hybrid?

3 round:
• Share for 1 minute each
• 5 minute of open talk
• Final thought: 1 minute each
From: Lee Grody - Better Meetings - DC to Everyone

FUTURE MEETINGS!

From: East Street MTA to Everyone

Hybrid. Can't replace a hug and a handshake, but virtual meetings allow for members and people who couldn't normally attend to do so.

From: Margaret Riley - Event Planner - Arizona to Everyone

Virtual is here to stay in some way. Eventually hybrid will have to be an option.

From: Sue Bogart - Celebrate! to Everyone

Our take away was that we would like Raven's crystal ball when he's done with it ...

From: John Mihal to Everyone

Need for Toolkit for AEs to host Hybrid Meetings and Technology Needs –

From: Bob Trader, EO PMA South Dakota to Everyone

yes tool kit for hybrid meetings please and thank you!

From: Lynda - Texas REALTOR® to Everyone

We are all husting online meeting/events: hybrid meetings will not go away, likely will be a hybrid. Good idea: same event, a "roadshow" that attracts smaller groups throughout the state.

From: Lisa Andrews-McIntyre, NR to Everyone

Hybrid

From: Sue Waterhouse, Stone, VT to Everyone

We had a lively conversation regarding virtual and how convenient, time saving and money saving an opportunity opens up for folks who couldn't normally attend. Looking to future thinking that a hybrid would work keeping the advantages of virtual but also keeping the opportunities of people gathering and exchanging information.

From: Jennifer Schmitt - Midland, MI to Everyone

Publishing’s Clearinghouse Style Award Presentations instead of a function

From: Dp Halsey-Lincoln, NE to Everyone

Our Team Shirley, Heather, and Jeff

    o offer both to be versatile o step in more engagement (Think introverts and extroverts and utilizing both)
    o generational preferences
    o efficiencies with virtual (get more done)
    o virtual opens the doors to a variety of speakers since they don't have to travel
    o offer variety in programming
    o with limited budgets for travel, virtual allows ability for more to be involved

From: Ann Schneider - Massachusetts to Everyone

Can the Host save the chat and email it out to everyone?

From: Jame McDonald, SCC to Everyone

Association Hybrid: State Hybrid: NAR: Some live and a lot virtual. Chance for more speakers, helps budgets, offer all meetings to all both virtual and live was a suggestion.

From: Sandy D - Collaborate, MI to Everyone

Love the break out rooms. I've not tried that in our prior Association meetings but they are very informative & engaging

From: Kyle Thomas - NAR to Everyone

I'll check to see what is possible on the chat, since we have not recorded, not sure what is possible.

From: Bob Hensley to Everyone

Yes, please send us a copy of the chat.

From: MM to Everyone

From: Russel Holsen to Everyone

Agree with Heather V.

From: Stu Waterhouse, Stone, VT to Everyone

Some great ideas came from the break out rooms and small group interactions. Great opportunity to interact with people from all over the country.

From: Lisa Andrews-McIntyre, NR to Everyone

yes there is a setting
From Grant Lyons: Located at 7AM; explanation to everyone.
Being nimble, and flexible will be key. Be ready for any type of meeting, especially to provide options.
