Unleash the Power of Your Brain
Learn to harness the incredible creative capacity of your mind and achieve your personal best - professionally, financially and personally when you attend Train Your Brain for Success on Thursday, Nov. 16th, in Downers Grove.

Help Stop This Threat to Consumers
The tax reform legislation that was recently unveiled could cause homeowners to lose substantial equity from the more than 10% drop in home values likely to result if the bill is enacted. Read these talking points to learn more. More than 18.6% of MORs members have participated in the Tax Reform Call for Action. Help up reach 20% by contacting Congress today with this form.

Professional and Ethical Practices
Spotlight on the Code of Ethics - Advertising Real Estate-Related Products and Services
The deadline to complete the NAR Code of Ethics requirement is Dec. 31st, 2018. Click here for all of the options to complete the biennial requirement, including classroom, self-study, and online courses.

This week's Spotlight on the Code of Ethics on the Article 6: Advertising Real Estate-Related Products and Services. Missed a previous spotlight? Check out the series here.

Proper Use of the REALTOR® Trademark
Learn about the REALTOR® trademark and proper use in this video from NAR.