Article 13

REALTORS® shall not engage in activities that constitute the unauthorized practice of law and shall recommend that legal counsel be obtained when the interest of any party to the transaction requires it.
Know what the “unauthorized practice of law” means in your state.
Do not draft your own agreement forms.

Use approved agreement forms from your local or state association.
Do not make changes to forms.
Do not charge a fee for preparing documents.
Do not interpret contract provisions. Instead, encourage parties to the transaction to consult an attorney.
