

Keynote Online Video Education in 15 states and Features Exciting New Website

Keynote, the second generation of online education, is now available through the state REALTOR® Associations in Arkansas, Kansas, Connecticut, Iowa, Texas, Washington, North Carolina, Kentucky, Mississippi, South Dakota, and Nebraska. Preparations are underway for Keynote programs to launch this year in Oklahoma, Alabama, Illinois, and Virginia, with three additional states currently considering becoming Keynote Partners in 2016. The Keynote series consists of a wide variety of three to four hour CE and GRI courses taught by nationally-recognized speakers such as Chris Bird, Chandra Hall, Vern Jarboe, Jackie Leavenworth, Tom Lundstedt, Jerry Rossi, Mark Porter and Barry Stranz.

The new KEYNOTE WEBSITE – KeynoteCommunity.com - is the center point of a growing community of real estate professionals, educators, and association executives. It is an information hub with practical, powerful ideas presented in short videos, featuring a speaker showcase and an ever-expanding library of videos and articles produced by industry experts.

For more information on the series or to discuss entering into a partnership agreement that will benefit your association and your members, please contact Dr. Rod McIntyre at KAR at 800-366-0069, ext. 2131 or by email at rmcintyre@kansasrealtor.com.

Keynote is CE like you've never seen before.
