

State Leadership Idea Exchange New Hampshire

“Hands Across New Hampshire: REALTOR Proud” Installation event

The 2017 New Hampshire REALTORS President, Rachel Eames, used her installation to demonstrate, rather than just talk about, the very best of what the state association is. It was more of a multi-tiered event than a mere installation, and it brought a much larger and more diverse crowd than the association is accustomed to seeing at its ceremonial functions.

As a supplement to the traditional installation ceremonies, Rachel was intent on shining the spotlight on the inaugural Leadership Academy graduation, recognizing the first nine to go through the year-long Leadership Academy. The program was designed to enhance the leadership skills of members considering service in Realtor leadership positions at the local, state or national level, while augmenting their personal and professional lives as well. It also will serve as a prerequisite for the NHAR offices of Vice President, First Vice President, President-Elect and President.

The event also served as a fundraiser for two nonprofits, New Hampshire Families in Transition and the SPCA, and through Rachel’s tireless efforts, it raised $15,000 for the two charities through a 50-50 raffle, silent auction and a live auction – including $360 for an autographed 8-by-10 photo of New Hampshire REALTORS Government Affairs Director Bob Quinn.

The evening was capped by a wildly hilarious performance by comedian Juston McKinney.
